Reading the morning paper over a cup of coffee. Getting lost in a good book. Staying connected to what's happening in your community. Life is full of little joys, let Illinois Radio Reader be one of them for your client or loved one.

Illinois Radio Reader provides a free radio reading service for the print-impaired community of east central Illinois.

By using a free sub-carrier receiver, or streaming the service online, listeners are kept up-to-date on local news of interest, read by local volunteers.

Illinois Radio Reader also broadcasts the reading of books, magazines, and senior citizen features, as well as grocery and drugstore ads.

Listeners look forward to tuning in to hear:
